IN SEARCH OF SHANGRI-LA

The mountain areas in the Southern provinces of China have been largely inaccessible to outside adventure travelers until relatively recently. On this trip we have the opportunity to see and experience some treasures of this fascinating region – from hiking in the scenic beauty of mountain areas as high as the Alps, to local minority groups which still retain their traditional clothes, cuisine and culture – and their warm hospitality. We will see ancient monuments and temples, including the largest stone Buddha the world has known, completed in 803AD. Of course, no trip to this region would be complete without getting close to the Giant Pandas – protected and bred in Chengdu, also home to the famous Sichuan spicy hotpot.

CHINA an overview

China is the third largest and most populous country in the world. China offers a vast array of dynamic holiday opportunities with the hustle and bustling big cities of Shanghai, Beijing, Chengdu and many more alongside mountains, rice terraces, rivers and even deserts. China boasts many historic and cultural tourist attractions, with the obvious one being The Great Wall of China, not forgetting the terracotta warriors, Leshan Giant Buddha, Summer Palace, and The Forbidden city, etc. China proudly have the largest Research Base for Panda Breeding where you can see the pandas feeding and playing, if you're lucky you might even get to see a baby panda. There is something for everyone to see in China no matter what you are into, this incredible country will blow you away.

DAY 3: Hiking at FOUR GIRLS MOUNTAIN

Today we head off early to go hiking at Four Girl's mountain (239km).

This is a great mountain for hiking with lovely views and a picturesque river. It is highly thought of amongst hikers in China. We will hike 4-6h, stopping to share a lunch, enjoy the amazing views and peace of this area, The surrounding mountains rise to 6250m. 4000m below the peaks, where we will walk, is the forest with flowers everywhere, grassland, rivers and local minority groups Zang and Qiang with their unique cultures.

We stay in a Zang house at the foot of Snow Mountain, relaxing in their very peaceful town.

DAY 4: Visit the CHENGDU RESEARCH base of Giant Pandas and flight to SHANGRI-LA

This morning we walk around Chengdu research base for giant pandas, hopefully also seeing lots of baby pandas. This is a panda sanctuary where they are housed in a primordial forest with many endemic plants. There are lots of bamboo stands, nice flowers, plenty of fresh air and, natural hill scenes and there are more pandas here than you will ever see outside of China. There are opportunities for feeding and close interaction as well as taking photos with these wonderful creatures. You may also have the chance to see young babies which are born here. Following our relaxed day with these beautiful creatures, we fly to Shangri-la.

Shangri-la: Most people will have heard of this town. It is a Zang nationality town with wooden buildings. Zang people often have fire parties, traditional mixing with modern.

DAY 5: EXPLORE THE ANCIENT MONASTRY: SONGZANLIN MONASTERY AND NAPAHAHAI

A short journey from Shangri-La takes us to this ancient monastery (3 km). We explore the monastery and experience this amazing temple. In the afternoon we cycle from our hotel to Napa Lake (8km), with lovely views on the way. Local people call this "Plateau Pearl" grass land. It is 3270 meters above sea level and covers 660 square kilometers. There are many rare animals beside the peaceful lake. During the evening, we will walk in the ancient town also seeing the biggest prayer wheel in the world.

DAY 6: Take on one of the World's Classic Hiking Lines: TIGER LEAPING GORGE and discover LIJIANG

We drive (106km) to go to Tiger Leaping Gorge; it is one of the world's classic hiking lines. It is one of the deepest canyons in the world, with a maximum depth of approximately 3790 meters from river to mountain peak. The river passes between the 5596 meters Jade Dragon Snow Mountain and the 5396 meters Haba Snow Mountain. We will go hiking for around 4 hours, then head to Lijiang Shuhe Ancient Town (81km).

Lijiang town has varied local minority customs and entertainment. Naxi (one of the smaller minority nationalities) have their own ancient music, the Dongba ceremony and the torch festival. There are delightful wooden buildings and different styles of restaurant around a small river. People are often singing on the street, dancing with fire at night. We stay in a delightful local hotel, classical wooden structure with modern style. We will BBQ in the attached gardens before resting.

DAY 7: Discover the cultural YUHU VILLAGE

This morning we go to Yuhu village (26km). With houses made of stone and at the foot of Snow Mountain, the holy water from Snow Mountain flowing by contributes to the mysterious culture surrounding this delightful village. Naxi people live here, they follow Dongba culture (with its own archaic religion). We can still find hieroglyphics everywhere in this village. We walk in the old town and explore the local Dongba culture, have lunch in a local place, trying traditional Naxi food. The lovely atmosphere is why Joseph Rock chose this place to live when he came in 1922. He lived here 27 years and we can still see his house in the village. He sent large numbers photos to American National Geographic magazine and, because of him, people from the outside world got to know a little about Lijiang. He wrote to his friend just before he died, he'd "rather die here than lie alive on a sick bed in Hawaii".

Overnight:

Meals:
B, L, D

DAY 8: Head to “The Kingdom of Women”: LUGU LAKE

Head to Lugu Lake (180km) , also called “the kingdom of women” as this has remained a maternal society, a culture strange to us with different customs and a very different way of life.

This nationality still has unusual marriage traditions. Families are matriarchal. The woman is powerful here. Children may not know their father, but are brought up in the mother’s home with the uncle being the bigger male influence. They still have a tradition of “walking marriage” about which we will learn. The beautiful blue lake has a large drainage catchment and has many minority ethnic groups and ancient villages.

We will take a local wooden boat for an hour or so to get to an island in the middle of the lake that has a temple which we will walk around there before heading back for our local dinner

Overnight:

Meals:

DAY 9: Explore the ancient village of GESA and learn about their culture and traditions

We start the day with a cycle around Lugu Lake. There are many minority ethnic groups by the lake. We will visit a local home in Gesa ancient village. It is a beautiful natural village where people still wear traditional clothes. We will experience the very different life they lead and they will cook for us. Grandma will make local butter tea and we will sit around a fire and talk with them. They will share with us about their life and we will get a glimpse of another world

Overnight:

Extension Options:-

We are happy to organise an extension if you are hoping to explore a bit more of China.

E.g. – a short 2 -5 day extension - flying from Kunming to Beijing and then seeing the Great Wall (we recommend one of the less crowded parts!) , the forbidden City and Tienanmen Square, the old and new Summer Palaces as well as experience a traditional hutong. It is then possible to fly back directly from Beijing to London on BA or go back via Chengdu.
