FAMILY RAINFOREST ADVENTURE

This expedition allows us to visit the largest island in Asia which contains one of the oldest rainforests in the world. This rainforest is estimated to be around 140 million years old and is home to the endangered Borneo Orangutans.

The expedition begins in Kuching the capital of the Malaysian state of Sarawak on the island of Borneo, in which we will experience open markets, temples and mosques. Then we will dive into Semenggoh Orangutan Conservation Reserve, which is one of the oldest forest reserves. The reserve is made up of 653 hectares and here Orangutans are taught to live in the wild.

Kiulu offers a full day of white water rafting on an easy but enjoyable river in which the whole family can indulge in. The Kinabatangan River is a bit of a drive from Sandakan and stretches out for 350 miles. You can enjoy viewing birds and wildlife, before moving onto a 4 night stay at the Gaya Islands.

BORNEO an overview

Sarawak and Sabah make up the more popular Malaysian portion of the beautiful nature playground - Borneo. This magical Island is draped in the richest and one of the most ancient equatorial rainforests on the planet. It acts as shelter to some incredible native wildlife including Orangutans and proboscis monkeys in the canopy above, pygmy elephants roaming the riversides and clouded leopards wandering the depths of the jungle. Today discover the local antics in Sarawak. Located about 34km from the city, the award winning Sarawak Cultural Village (SCV) is a refreshing and unique “living museum” sitting on a sprawling 17 - acre site at the foothills of the legendary Mount Santubong. It has 7 representative ethnic houses - Bidayuh Longhouse, Iban Longhouse the Penan Hut, the Orang Ulu Longhouse, the Melanau House, the Malay House and Chinese Farm House. These houses are built according to authentic styles and well stocked with real, traditional artefacts. SCV is known as a “living museum” because natives live in its houses and make handicrafts.

This trip here will enable you to gain a rather comprehensive insight into the colourful traditional and cultures of the various races in Sarawak. Watch how the womenfolk make intricate bead-necklaces and baskets, observe their traditional cooking methods, admire the refined skills of their male counterpart in handling the deadly blowpipe, making the Parang ilang (ceremonial sword) or casting their fishing nets into the man-made lake. You'll head back to town for own lunch.

At 2pm, depart for Semenggoh Orang Utan Conservation Centre, located about 30 minutes' drive south from Kuching. It is part of the larger Semenggoh Nature Reserve, Sarawak's oldest forest reserve which houses a botanical research centre, arboretum, gardens and trails. Unlike in a zoo, the Orangutans are free to roam in this 653 hectare forest reserve. Here, young and adolescent Orangutans used to be trained to survive in the wild. Spot their delicate nests; watch their skilful movements in the tree tops and their interesting behaviour during feeding time. The guide will also narrate to you the behaviour and characteristics of this special primate called Orang Utan or 'Man of the Forest' in the Malay language.
